Defendants.

No. 2:18-cv-00064 RSL

STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR REMAND

NOTED FOR CONSIDERATION:
January 25, 2018

STIPULATION

The parties, by and through their undersigned counsel, enter this Stipulation as follows:

1. Plaintiff Michelle Mathison filed this lawsuit in Washington State Superior Court for King County claiming injuries arising from two separate accidents. The first accident occurred on October 27, 2014. Ms. Mathison alleged claims for personal injuries against Defendant Christine and John Doe Upton (the "Upton Defendants") arising from the first accident. The Upton Defendants have, in relevant part, denied the allegations. The second accident occurred on June 23, 2015, based upon which Ms. Mathison seeks underinsured motorist ("UIM") benefits from State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company ("State Farm") in this lawsuit. State Farm has, in relevant part, denied the allegations.

1 2. Counsel for the Upton Defendants removed this action to this Court on June 16,
2 2018 (Dkt. #1) based upon diversity of citizenship because the parties were and are diverse and
3 because counsel for the Upton Defendants believed in good faith that the amount in controversy
4 exceeded $75,000. Counsel for State Farm consented to the removal (Dkt. # 5).

5 3. On Friday, January 19, 2018, Plaintiff's attorney James Prescott contacted
6 counsel for the Upton Defendants, Donna Chamberlin, and stated his view that he did not 7 believe that this case satisfied the amount in controversy minimum for removal based upon the 8 Complaint and Plaintiff's Statement of Damages. Counsel generally discussed that whether the 9 amount in controversy minimum had been met could be dependent upon whether Plaintiff
10 Michelle Mathison was claiming joint and several liability as to the Defendants. The afore
11 referenced attorneys agreed to research their respective positions and to reconvene in a 12 conference after analyzing their respective positions.

13 4. During a second telephone conference on January 19, 2018, counsel for Plaintiff
14 Michelle Mathison and for the Upton Defendants agreed as follows:

15 a. Plaintiff Michelle Mathison is not and will not claim that the Upton
16 Defendants on the one hand and Defendant State Farm on the other hand have 17 joint and several liability for the damages claimed by Plaintiff Michelle Mathison
18 in this action; instead, the two actions were joined in one action for convenience;
19 and

20 b. Plaintiff Michelle Mathison is not claiming that the amount in controversy
21 as to the Upton Defendants exceeds $75,0000, and Plaintiff Michelle is not 22 claiming that the amount in controversy as to Defendant State Farm exceeds 23 $75,000.

24 5. Because Plaintiff Michelle Mathison is not claiming that the Upton Defendants
25 and State Farm are jointly and severally liable and is limiting the damages claimed against the 26 Upton Defendants on the one hand and State Farm on the other hand to less than $75,000, the 27 parties agree that this case may be remanded to Washington State Superior Court for King

County pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, which sets the federal diversity jurisdiction minimum at greater than $75,000 exclusive of interests and costs.
